Tom Bekkers, MSW, APSW, is an Advanced Practice Social Worker with over 30 years of experience in professional counseling related to patients and family members faced with the challenges of health situations, lifestyle adjustment issues, death, and grief. Tom holds a master's degree from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

For more than three decades, he worked at St. Vincent Hospital in Green Bay and served as facilitator of the "Understanding Grief" group and "Taking Time" cancer support group. Tom also worked at Unity Hospice as a grief counselor and has co-facilitated grief groups at Unity for family members after the death of a loved one. Tom is currently employed as a social worker with Green Bay Oncology. He is co-author of "The Widower's Toolbox: Repairing Your Life After Losing Your Spouse" which helps channel men's grief into constructive tasks and provides tools that will enable bereaved men to recreate lives that can be fulfilling once again.

Tom lives in Denmark, Wisconsin with his wife Patty, and he has two daughters. Tom and Patty are members of the Circles of Faith Catholic Community, belonging to St. James Parish in Cooperstown. Tom may be contacted by phone at 920-660-8066 or by email at tbekkers@centurytel.net

SUNDAY, JULY 14, 2024

Why We Need to Tell Our Loved One's Story

Telling the story of the one you lost is a fitting way to honor the life and love you shared. By telling the story, you may lighten the burden of loss, and bring you healing and consolation. This session will discuss aspects involved in telling your story which will provide an outlet for your emotions and acknowledge that your spirit may be suffering too, but that you CAN get through grief.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 2024

Overcoming Loneliness After a Loss

It is no surprise that given the variety of emotions that one experiences after the death of a loved one, the emotion of loneliness is often the most commonly felt. This group will explore common strategies aimed at easing the emotional pain one endures while attempting to face the future with a sense of hopefulness beyond loneliness.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 2024

Getting Through the Holidays in the Midst of Your Loss

Holidays can be difficult for those who have experienced the death of a loved one. Rather than being times of family togetherness, holidays can bring feelings of sadness, loss, and emptiness. This session will provide strategies to help you better cope with your grief during this joyous, yet painful time of the year.

General Tips on Grief

- Give yourself permission, time, and space to grieve.
  - Be patient and gentle with yourself.
  - Seek support through family, friends, clergy, support groups or counseling.
  - Learn about grief...understanding helps you to realize that you're not "going crazy."
  - Express your grief...talk, write in a journal, paint a picture, play music, write a poem, do something physical...any activity that helps you vent your feelings.
  - Don't overextend yourself or take on new responsibilities right away.
  - Accept your grief...don't pretend that it doesn't hurt. Grieving is a natural and healing process.
  - Don't compare yourself to others who are grieving. Everyone heals in their own time and way.
  - Respect your own timetable...there is no fixed period for mourning.
  - Cry...it is not a sign of weakness. Tears release tension and are healing.
  - Pace yourself...grief takes energy.
  - Take good physical care of yourself. Try to get enough rest...emphasize nutrition...exercise in moderation...see your doctor for a physical.
  - Find balance in your life...take time to do nice things for yourself.
  - Plan activities that are enjoyable.
  - It's OK to laugh and have fun.
- Don't become dependent on alcohol or drugs to get through the painful times... they will only mask the pain.
  - Get involved in meaningful activities... work, hobbies, and volunteering.
  - Ask for help when you need it and accept help when offered. Let others know what is right for you; they will take their cues from you.
  - Realize that death often causes one to examine his/her faith or philosophy of life. You may find yourself questioning old beliefs. Talking about it can help. For many, faith offers help to accept the unacceptable.
  - Set small, manageable goals - one day (hour/minute)—whatever you can do.
  - Postpone major decisions, such as selling your home or changing jobs, if possible. Also avoid making hasty decisions about your loved one's belongings. Gauge your own readiness.
  - Realize that grief is a process that has both ups and downs, strides, and backslides, times of rest and pause. Honor your own process.
  - Avoid thinking "what if..." "if only..." "I should have..." Feelings of guilt are normal, though often not realistic.
  - Forgive yourself, if necessary
  - Share memories. Use their name. Healing through grief doesn't mean forgetting your loved one.
